Areas of Practice

As a Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Queensland I practiced mainly in business and commercial law, banking and finance, technology and intellectual property.

Rated in "Legal Profiles 2002" as "highly recommended" in areas of Intellectual Property and Information Technology and "recommended" in Ecommerce and Corporate Advisory.

I established Jacobson Consulting Pty Ltd in July 2004 as a specialist corporate governance, compliance and training firm for financial service providers, member-based organisations, statutory bodies and other regulated entities.

I provide independent general counsel and advice in relation to corporate governance, takeovers and mergers, capital issuance, commercial and regulatory matters.

Work History

I joined Gilshenan and Luton Lawyers in 1976 and became a partner in 1981. I retired from the firm in June 2004.

Former Queensland State Chair and a National (non-executive) Director of QL Inc., formerly Quality in Law Inc (a not for profit educational body) 1997-2001.

Founding member of Network Law an online service provider.
